Responsible Jewellery Council Policy

National Chain Company is a manufacturer of precious and non-precious metal chain and jewelry.

We have sites located in Warwick, Rhode Island, USA, Attleboro, Massachusetts, USA and Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic and employ 700 personnel.

National Chain Company is a Member of the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC).

The RJC is a standards-setting organization that has been established to advance responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices throughout the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewelry supply chain.

The RJC has developed a benchmark standard for the jewelry supply chain and credible mechanisms for verifying responsible business practices through third party auditing.

As an RJC Member, we commit to operating our business in accordance with the RJC Code of Practices. We commit to integrating ethical, human rights, social and environmental considerations into our day-to-day operations, business planning activities and decision making processes.
